Numb. 7011.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday Auguſt 7. to Tueſday Auguſt 10. 1731.

Moſcow, July 5, O. S.

THE 28th of laſt Month in the Evening the Empreſs came to Town from her Camp near Iſmoyloff, and Yeſterday ſhe incamped with all her Court, and the three Regiments of the Guards, juſt out of Town, near a vaſt Wooden Houſe her Majeſty is building, which will contain near 300 Chambers. It is ſaid Major Biron, the Great Chamberlain's Brother, will ſoon be married to the Daughter of the deceaſed Prince Menzikoff, to whom her Majeſty has returned ſeveral Eſtates her Father had. The ſix Battallions of the Guards that had Orders to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march from hence for St. Petersbourg the 5th, 10th and 15th Inſtant, are not to march from hence till the latter End of next Month. This Change makes ſome believe her Majeſty's Journey to that Place may be alſo put off, as it was laſt Year.

Berlin, Aug. 4, N. S. On Monday laſt the King of Pruſſia returned hither from viſiting his Pruſſian Dominions; the next Day arrived alſo the General's Seckendorff, Gromkow, Ginkel, and Colonel Polentz, who had accompanied his Majeſty in that Journey. On Wedneſday laſt a Meſſenger came from Cuſtrin, with an Account, that his Royal Highneſs the Prince was extreamly ill of a Fever. His Pruſſian Majeſty is a little indiſpoſed of the Gout ſince Yeſterday. On Wedneſday laſt died here Lieutenant General Schulenbourg.

Berlin, Aug. 7, N. S. The King of Pruſſia's Fit of the Gout has not yet left him; however he deſigns to go To-morrow to Potſdam, the Air of that Place agreeing better with his Majeſty than that of Berlin. The Prince Royal is almoſt quite recovered of his late Indiſpoſition.

Berlin, Aug. 11, N. S. On Wedneſday laſt the King of Pruſſia went to Potſdam. The Evening before his Majeſty conferred on the Prince of Bareith the Command of the Regiment of Dragoons vacant by the Death of Lieutenant General Schulenbourg. The Prince went Yeſterday to Potſdam by his Pruſſian Majeſty's Appointment; and it is ſaid, that ſoon after the King's Return to Town, which will be in a Couple of Days, the Prince is to go to his Regiment, Orders having already been given for proper and convenient Quarters to be prepared for him. Prince Auguſtus, his Pruſſian Majeſty's youngeſt Son, is appointed Stadthouder of Pomerania, in the Room of the late Margrave Albert.

Caſſel, Aug. 13, N. S. On Saturday the 11th Inſtant, about Six in the Evening, his Swediſh Majeſty made his Entry into this Place, being met about half a League off by the Commandant and a great Number of Officers on Horſeback, who preceded his Majeſty into Town, the Streets being lined on both Sides by the three Regiments in Garriſon here, from the Gate through which his Majeſty made his Entrance to the Palace. After a triple Diſcharge of all the Artillery upon the Ramparts, the Regiments marched by his Majeſty, and having retaken their Poſts, made three Diſcharges of their Fire-Arms. There were many Triumphal Arches erected on this Occaſion, and an incredible Concourſe of People, who had flocked from all Parts, as well to partake in the Rejoycings, as to be Spectators of the magnificent Illuminations, Fireworks, &c. prepared for this Purpoſe; amongſt which,

thoſe